

Inauguration of a Certificate Course on “Freight Forwarding” held

An inauguration ceremony of a Certificate Course namely “Freight Forwarding” held on 17 November 2017 at the University Auditorium. The Certificate Course was organized by the Faculty of Maritime Governance and Policy.

Dean of the same faculty, Commodore M Ziauddin Alamgir graced the program as the Chief Guest. Students along with their guardians, faculty members and other relevant resource personnel attended the inauguration ceremony.

The chief guest expressed his thoughts that, students after completing the certificate course will develop and emerge themselves as maritime and shipping professionals, along with that they will serve the nation with their expertise in shipping sector and assist the nation in the process of becoming a developed country. Moreover, the chief guest expressed the determination of this specialized university to uplift the nation’s economy to “Blue Economy” through maritime research, discover and invent new technology, tools and strategies, and develop expert manpowers serving in this sector.